the second edition of william phemister s the american piano concerto compendium reveals to professional and amateurs pianists alike a vast collection of available compositions by american composers analysis expands outside mainstream concerto styles to include those considered experimental or popular derivatives the range of music flows from pulitzer prize winners like samuel barber gail kubik and john lamontaine to lesser known multi ethnic composers such as tania león and samuel zyman to old standards like edward macdowell and the first piano concerto written by an american born composer otis b boise 1875 to the cutting edge avant garde of milton babbitt and elliott carter just to name a few these all contribute to the varied narrative that animates american piano music with forty percent more works described documented and reviewed than were listed in the 1985 first edition from the college music society this second edition is a valuable resource not only for pianists and conductors but also for orchestras teachers students music historians and critics collectors and concert attendees when 12 year old janina fialkowska momentously decided to dedicate her life to music little did she know what was in store certainly her love of music and desire to share this love provided fulfilment and joy and there was a certain glamour to the life of a touring artist she traveled to many countries met many fascinating people and indulged her weakness for good food but there was another side to such a life and reality made its ugly appearance fairly early on this collection of autobiographical anecdotes some poignant some hilarious describes her meeting with the legendary arthur rubinstein who subsequently shaped the course of her career her colourful adventures as a young north american woman in the male dominated music world and her final triumph over horrific illness this comprehensive annotated resource of solo repertoire for the horn documents in detail the rich catalogue of original solo compositions for the instrument intended as a guide for practical use and easy reference it is organized into three large sections works for unaccompanied horn works for horn and keyboard and works for horn and ensemble each entry includes publisher information a brief description of the form and character of a work technical details of the horn writing and information on dedication and premiere the authors also include commentary on the various techniques required and the performance challenges of each piece representing over ten years of careful compilation and notation by an expert in horn performance and pedagogy and by a seasoned music librarian and natural horn performer guide to the solo horn repertoire will be an invaluable resource for performers educators and composers
